DAILY KENTUCKIAN

"GREATER HOPKINS-VILLE WANTS YOU."

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Call 449 if you fail to get the Kentuckian promptly. And if you have a news item, phone it to the same number.

The General Assembly is entering upon its last week.

The sun rises today at 6:15 and sets at 6:05.

L. R. Crawley is another Hopkinsville man who has three sons in the U. S. Army.

You ought to have planted your potatoes Tuesday. The moon changed yesterday.

Ira D. Smith, one of the Board of Exemption for Christian county, is himself called for examination today.

The Kentucky State Military Department has ordered the 2244 negro conscripts awaiting call to begin mobilizing at Camp Taylor next Monday.

Senator Frank Rives is still pushing his registration bill in the final hours. By-the-way, Senator Rives is easily one of the most influential leaders of the Senate.

Hall R. Nestler, a divinity student at Galesburg, Ill., appeared for examination and said he could be of more service fighting than preaching and asked for a quick chance to get to France.

The three Wilkinson boys are all officers in the service of the Country.
Lieut. Eph Wilkinson is in France with the engineers, Jack Wilkinson is at Camp Jackson, Columbia, S. C., F. L. Wilkinson, Jr., is an Ensign in the U. S. Navy, on board the cruiser Devener.

Rhode Island, like New York and New Jersey, has defeated the ratification of the prohibition amendment. This finishes the states whose Legislatures are in session and the record stands 8 dry and 3 wet with referendums. The dry states were Mississippi, Virginia, Kentucky, South Carolina, North Dakota, Maryland, Montana and Texas.

The Huns evidently hope to destroy the morale of the French people by the raids on Paris. The Frenchman has not the quiet stoicism of the Englishman and is more apt to be thrown into a panicky confession. In London the theatres even pay very little attention to the possibility of having bombs dropped on them.

At last the call has come for colored men to respond to the call of the country for soldiers. If all of them are like those in this county the negroes are ready and willing to go. In the examinations last year very few of them claimed exemption, but nearly all of them appeared not only willing but anxious to go.
In the crowd of 100 waiting to be examined yesterday there seemed to be no cowards in the line but on all sides was a cheerful willingness that approached enthusiasm. Those who passed seemed proud of the fact and came out smiling.

PROUD OF ARCHIE

COL. ROOSEVELT'S COMMENTS ON LEARNING THAT HIS SON WAS SHOT.

(By International News Service.)

New York, March 14.—"I am as proud of my four boys as I can be.
As long as Archie was not killed, everything is all right." Such were the words of Theodore Roosevelt this afternoon, when he received a message from Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Major with American troops in France, which read:

"Archie wounded by shrapnel, slightly in leg. Arm broken, but not badly. No danger." Ted. Just previous to the receipt of this message Col. Roosevelt received a message saying: "Archie has been decorated by the French General with the Cross of War."

DELINQUENT ARRESTED.

Edward Dickerson, col., a delinquent who failed to return his questionnaire, was arrested Tuesday by the local police and turned over to the local Draft Board. Dickerson was immediately put in Class 1 and today he was sent to Camp Taylor, Louisville. He was sent alone.
Should he refuse to report to the authorities at the Camp he will be treated as a deserter and when found by court martial and punished accordingly.

DRAFT MEN RUN GAUNTLET

Examinations Partake of Rapid Fire Nature--Men Examined in Record Time.

HELD AT THE AVALON

Thirty-two Failed to Answer
Call Yesterday--More Examinations Today.

The appeal of the Local Draft Board for an adequate force of both doctors and clerical help was not in vain, for, yesterday morning at 9:00 o'clock plenty of doctors and clerks were at the Avalon on time and the work of examining Class 1 men began in earnest and proceeded rapidly until 12 o'clock noon when the last man had been put through the necessary test preliminary to becoming a real "Sammy."

Out of 163 men called 131 answered and were examined. Of these 125 are residents of this county and 6 are transfers from other places but asked to be examined here.
There were 32 who did not answer to their names when called. What excuses will be offered is not known but it is generally known that several men are now located in other places and these will likely be examined by other boards as transfers from this county.

Mr. T. L. Metcalf did the generous thing (he always does) and tendered the use of the Avalon for the several examinations to be held this week and next. Uncle Sam will no doubt recognize and reward Mr. Metcalf as a real patriot. There are other patriots also. On entering the room yesterday the registrant was questioned and enrolled and given his blank by E. H. Higgins, M. L.
Elb and George DeFreville. From here he went to the scales and was weighed by George Harris who was his own clerk. After being weighed each man was sent to Dr. G. W. Lovan and H. A. Robinson when they were measured as to height and respiration and recorded by A. A. Winfree. Then the eyes and ears were tested by Drs. Beazley and Perkins assisted by J. D. Higgins, Prentice Mercer, and W. O. Soyars. Then the teeth were examined by Dr. L. Grace and his findings recorded by himself.
The examination of the chest was made by Dr. Austin Bell with L. H.
Petrie as clerk and the examination from the waist line to the feet was made by Dr. F. P. Thomas assisted by Tom Kelly. Finally the registrant was looked over and his record examined by Dr. J. H. R. of the Draft Board. After the examination was complete the registrant was sent to the office of the clerk of the Board and his record filed for reference.

Today 163 more are called and the examination will proceed as yesterday.

INCREASE

IN MONUMENT FUND BY WILL
OF A LOUISVILLE
WOMAN.

By the terms of the will of Mrs.
Sarah E. Lowry Parker of Louisville, sociation. The will was admitted to probate Tuesday in the Jefferson county court.

CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS DOING COMPULSORY DUTY.

(By International News Service.)

Pittsburg, March 13.—"I do not believe in any wars. I am not going to kill workmen regardless of race, nationality or religion. I believe in class struggle. I think U. S. had no moral right to enter this war.
I am not going to collect debts for Mrs. P. Morgan and J. D. Rockefeller.
Therefore you must exempt me if you want less trouble for U. S. government."

Stanley Pikarsky, a waiter, who classifies himself as a conscientious objector, member of socialist party, Bolshevik and Internationalist, informed his exemption board of the above facts by letter. Stanley was first arrested as a deserter, jailed for five days and then escorted to Camp Lee to do duty under compulsion.

1—Two Pollus carrying a wounded comrade down a communication trench to a front aid station. 2—Turkish prisoners taken by the British being marched through the streets of ancient Bagdad. 3—Soldiers at Camp Hancock going through the shadow boxing that helps make them agile.

SOLDIER DIES

RAYMOND MAGRAW A VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA AT CAMP
TAYLOR.

Raymond Magraw, aged 22, the young son of Dr. N. C. Magraw, formerly of Edgerton, but now of Cadiz, died at Camp Zachary Taylor yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock of pneumonia. The young man was in the first draft from Christian county and went to Louisville last September. He was a splendid young soldier full of patriotism and loyalty.
His untimely death before he ever had an opportunity to fight for his country is deeply regretted by all who knew him.

The young soldier's body will reach this city to-day and will be taken to the Magraw burying ground at Round Spring for interment.

MRS. SUE BYARS

(Special to Kentuckian.)

Trenton, Ky., March 13.—Mrs. Sue Byars, widow of the late Lee Byars, died at her home here this afternoon, aged 64 years. She was a daughter of Dr. Fox who was killed in Trenton during the civil war by a negro. Mrs. Byars is survived by two children. The funeral will be tomorrow.

MUTINEERS

(By International News Service.)

Atlantic Port, March 13.—Sixty Russian members of the crew of a steamer lying at harbor, who refused to work or obey orders were taken off their vessels. The Navy Department may take charge of the ship on the grounds that it is a menace to the harbor.

PROMOTION

Miss Lillian Brasher, who has been county demonstration agent for Marshall county has been transferred to Hart county. The change is in the nature of a promotion with an increase in salary. Miss Brasher is ents before entering upon her new duties.

DISTRESSED SHIP SENDS OUT "S. O. S." IN VAIN.

San Francisco, March 13.—Badly leaking while only a few miles off Honolulu and in danger of sinking, the American bark Retriever failed to obtain help from passing ships, which apparently feared the bark to be an enemy raider, according to Captain John Ross, who has arrived here. The Retriever sent up distress signals repeatedly, but they attracted no attention, Captain Ross said.
Federal officers are investigating.
After much difficulty the Retriever made port, and is now in drydock at Honolulu.

ROSY PROSPECT FOR FACTORY

Committee Returns Full of Enthusiasm and Hopes Run High.

SAW PADUCAH FACTORY

Great Opportunity to Put Hoptown on Map As
"Shure Nuf" Town.

The committee of business men selected Monday to go to Paducah to make further investigations into the proposition of the American Cigar Co., to locate a factory here returned last night full of enthusiasm and hope of securing a factory for Hopkinsville. The committee consisted of J. E. McPherson, Dr. F.
H. Bassett, and J. T. Wall.

This committee was met by Mr.
David Weiss and shown through the Paducah plant, going over the pay-rolls, through the work department, kitchen and dressing rooms, and the hospital section. The factory was found to be kept clean and sanitary and up-to-date in every respect. The kitchen and lunch room serves lunch to the girls at cost. Dressing rooms are provided for convenience and the hospital for any employees who may get sick and need immediate attention. About 300 girls and women are employed and every precaution is taken to protect their health and morals.

This company has in its employ many who are well educated and refined. It was found that several had once taught school but had given up teaching for work in this factory.

Girls receive at starting $4.00 per week and are advanced after 3 or 4 weeks as they learn until many make from $8 to $14 per week. Anyone making less than $8 per week after 3 or 4 months is not desirable.

A factory will be started in Hopkinsville at once if a suitable building can be arranged for and a guarantee of 300 or more girls and women employees to start. Only white people are employed. The company would rather work 1,000 girls than 300 but will start with the smaller number.

A factory in Hopkinsville would mean a pay-roll of not less than $2,100 per week and might run to $3,500 or $4,000. The committee will report Friday night to a meeting of business people in the office of the H. B. M. A. Everyone who is interested in this proposition and a Greater Hopkinsville is expected to come out Friday night at 7:30. Don't forget the hour.

STEALS "GERM RABBITS."

(By International News Service.)

Montgomery, Ala., March 13.—
The State Laboratory and Pasteur Institute had several rabbits, inoculated with germs, for experimental purposes. Recently a thief made way with the rabbits. Developments are being awaited with keen interest.

ENSIGN FALLS

PLANE AT NORFOLK,

Washington, March 13.—Ensign Leslie McNaughton, of the United States Navy, was killed at Norfolk, Va., to-day, as a result of a fall from a seaplane, was announced at the Navy Department to-night. His home was at Fort Elwood, N. Y.

EPIDEMIC

OF SPINAL MENINGITIS CAUSES
APPEAL TO THE U. S. HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

(By International News Service.)

Lexington, Ky., March 13.—An epidemic of spinal meningitis is raging at Glasgow, Ky. The United States Health department has been appealed to.

Public gatherings are prohibited.

ENLISTED

The government has asked the dentists of the country to aid in filling or extracting teeth for men subject to the selective service law. The dentists of Hopkinsville have enlisted for this service and will devoted as much as one hour each day, if need be, to work for these men, which work will be without charge.
This will be of material aid to the government and will do away with the necessity of having this work done after arriving at the training camps.

GOES THE LIMIT

When filling out his questionnaire, Clyde Wright, a Todd county boy 26 years, refused to claim any exemption from service as a soldier and stated that he was not only ready but willing to don the khaki. That is going the limit. He shelled out a full $1,000 for War Savings Stamps. He was the first to go the limit, since an individual cannot purchase more than a thousand dollars in War Savings Stamps.

MADE TO KISS AND WAVE AMERICAN FLAG.

(By International News Service.)

Pittsburg, March 13.—Not one, but several times was Frank Walen-dowsky compelled to kiss the American flag. Not satisfied with this, Policeman James Noon made him walk up and down the callroom of the police station, waving the flag over his head. Frank was arrested for saying that he would remain a slacker as long as he lived.

SETTLEMENT OF RUSSO- JAPANESE PROBLEM REACHED

RAILROAD BILL GOES THROUGH

Conference Report Adopted
In the Senate With Eight Negative Votes.

GORE ONLY DEMOCRAT

Federal Control Is to Cease 21 Months After The War Ends.

(By International News Service.)

Washington, March 13.—The conference report on the administration railroad bill was adopted by the Senate this afternoon 47 to 8. Senators voting against it were Borah, of Idaho; Cummins, of Iowa; Gore, of Oklahoma; Gronna, of North Dakota; Johnson, of California; Kenyon, of Idaho; Norris of Nebraska; Townsend, of Michigan. The House has yet to act upon the report which concerns the bill giving the president authority to take over all railroads and operate them and to guarantee them certain compensation. The adoption of the report by the Senate was marked by opposition.
The bill was altered to allow the President to initiate rates subject to review by the interstate commerce commission. Railroads are guaranteed return based on the average operating income for the three years ending June 30, 1917. There is a revolving fund of $500,000,000 to purchase rolling stock. Federal control ceases 21 months after peace is declared.

STRANDED

125 SAVED

(By International News Service.)

East Hampton, L. I., March 13.— Sixty passengers of the Stranded steamer, Kirshaw, which went aground last night, and which was being pounded to pieces by a gale today, were landed this afternoon by Breeches Buys. The remainder of 125 passengers and the crew of 40 were transferred to patrol boats.

CONGESTION

IN BIG WAR
LEGISLATION

(By International News Service.)

Washington, March 13.—Work of the Nation's War in Congress is reaching Legislative congestion.
Numerous recent speed-up conferences and even requests from the President for haste have been of no avail. Three great features of the war program are held up in addition to a number of important but small plans. The important ones are the full operation of railroads as a national unit, reorganization of the executive department, the Thrift Liberty Loan, terms and amount.

Protect Curtains.

At the bottom of your bedroom curtains put small snaps, and up as far as you can reach put snap eyes. At night hook the bottom of the curtains up to prevent them from blowing out after the windows are opened. Do the same with the portieres when you are sweeping the floors or dusting.

Washington, March 13.—Japan will intervene in Siberia soon as a result of President Wilson's appeal to the Russian soviets becomes apparent. Preferably Japan will act with the approval of Soviets, but she will act, if emergency demands, without reference to Russian sentiment.
Action will be backed by England, France and Italy. The United States having expressed an adverse opinion will remain aloof. The above outlines the settlement of the Russo-Japanese problem which has been a current in diplomatic circles this afternoon.

THE TEUTONS HAVE ENTERED ODESSA PORT

(By International News Service.)

Amsterdam, March 13.—The teutonic advance patrols have entered the city of Odessa, forcing the black sea fleet to surrender. An ultimate drive into Persia, Afghanistan and India is believed to be the objective in taking this big port city. Rumania is now completely bottled.

Berlin, March 13.—An official announcement is made tonight that one thousand German troops have entered Odessa.

GUNFIRE AND RAIN THEORY.

"Well, dad, you used to argue that the heavy firing of big guns causes heavy rains. I've noticed over here that the biggest rains fall before the cannonading begins," writes a soldier boy in France to his father in Illinois.

What this soldier has observed sustains the argument of the well-known scientist, Alexander McAdie, who says that the heavy firing of big guns does not cause rain. He further says:

"The dates of the heaviest firing have not been accompanied nor followed by unusual rains either in the zone of fire or within moderate distance. The rains seem to have come and gone without regard to the firing. Naturally one will associate any stormy weather occurring near the date of a battle, but may easily overlook that in some cases rain begins before the battle. Or again, rain falling within two or three days of a battle is attributed to the battle, when in fact the rain area can be traced far to the west several days in advance.

"A notable instance of this confusion of event and cause is the battle of Gettysburg, often quoted as directly causing rain. The first 3 days were clear, while rain fell on the fourth day or after the battle was over. A slight study of weather sequences in that locality will show that such a sequence is entirely normal. In the past three years there has been unusual opportunity by explosions in munition plants and depots to study the concussion theory of rain making, and evidence adverse to the theory steadily accumulates.

"A close watch has been kept on some other problems, such as the audibility of gun-fire and the aberration of the sound with different atmospheric conditions. A cloudy sky, for example, appears to be more favorable for the travel of sound than a clear sky. Along the coast of England can be heard distinctly when light northerly winds are blowing, although one would suspect the opposite. It seems that at such times there are south winds higher up in the air and the sound waves are reflected downward. Such a reversal of air currents is found as a rule in advance of rain.

"Under such conditions when distant gun-fire is heard and is followed in a short time by rain, the hearer naturally connects the rain with the gun-fire. It is a juxtaposition of the air streams and not the concussion that results in rain."—Evansville Courier.

soner as the governor signed his pa-docks.

The second German air raid on Baker was supposed to be in the city.

British aviators have dropped a ton of bombs on the Coblenz, capital of the Rhine province of Prussia, according to an official communication issued.

The President's wife is selecting the names for the ships that are being constructed as one of the first steps in winning the war. This task will grow in importance with the completion of construction of many vessels now on the building ways.

Normal commercial traffic soon will be handled by the railroads, Director General McAdoo said. He appointed a number of assistants to John Skelton Williams, Director of Finance and Purchases. Between $1-000,000,000 and $2,000,000,000 will be spent.

George Graves writes his father, Palmer Graves, from Camp Taylor that he has been made a "K. P." Later he explained that "K. P." meant that he had been put to work with the "Kitchen Police" in an overalls uniform. But the bright side is that he is at the starting point of good eating in the kitchen.

The Huns a few nights ago made an air raid on a hospital filled with new-born babies. Fifty maternity cases in a Nancy hospital were removed from the hospital by the American Red Cross in quick time after a recent air raid on Nancy.
One bomb dropped on the roof of the maternity hospital, fell between two occupied beds. It failed to explode.

The George Rogers Clark Centennial editions of both the Courier-Journal and Times were mammoth affairs Tuesday of five sections filled with all manner of special articles of historical interest. It was a great advertisement of Louisville and surrounding territory. Some of the copies printed on calendered paper are being sold as souvenirs at $1 each.

The Mayfield Daily Times began publication Monday as an afternoon paper, giving Mayfield two afternoon dailies. Bert S. Berry is editor and publisher, and George Bingham of Hoggswallow fame is the city editor. The paper is a four-page six-column sheet, using the International News day service. Typographically it is attractive and starts out with liberal advertising patronage.

Air fighting is assuming tremendous proportions. The Germans are making raids almost every night.
They raided Paris on Friday and again on Monday night, the last time with 60 machines. On Tuesday night they turned up with another raid on London. The British on the same night raided the town of Coblenz in Prussia, but the allies do not seem to be doing much raiding in comparison with the Huns.

The death of Mrs. Lena Guilbert Ford, the American woman, who wrote "Keep the Home Fires Burning," one of the most popular marching songs of the British army and her crippled son Walter, was a pathetic incident of the German air raid on London. They died under the wreckage of their home. Mrs. Ford and her son were in bed at the time of the raid in adjoining rooms on second floor of a four story house in a long block of substantial brick structures. The two upper floors of the house were occupied by another family, all of whom were killed.

CONSTIPATION

And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadersville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills.
They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before.

I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and did not bad to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape.

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use."

Theodore's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action, leaving no bad after-effects, it has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it.

"Over the Top"

By An American Soldier

ARTHUR GUY EMPEY
Machine Gunner Serving in France

(Copyright, 1917, by Arthur Guy Empey)

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I.—Fired by the news of the sinking of the Lusitania by a German submarine, Arthur Guy Empey, an American, leaves his office in Jersey City and goes to England where he enlists in the British army.

CHAPTER II.—After a period of training, Empey volunteers for immediate service and soon finds himself in rest billets "somewhere in France," where he first makes the acquaintance of the ever-present "cooties."

CHAPTER III.—Empey attends his first church services at the front while a German Fokker circles over the congregation.

CHAPTER IV.—Empey's command goes into the front-line trenches and is under fire for the first time.

CHAPTER V.—Empey learns to adopt the motto of the British Tommy, "If you

CHAPTER VIII.

The Little Wooden Cross.
After remaining in rest billets for eight days, we received the unwelcome tidings that the next morning we would "go in" to "take over." At six in the morning our march started and, after a long march down the dusty road, we again arrived at reserve billets.

I was No. 1 in the leading set of fours. The man on my left was named "Pete Walling," a cheery sort of fellow. He laughed and joked all the way on the march, buoying up my drooping spirits. I could not figure out anything attractive in again occupying the front line, but Pete did not seem to mind, said it was all in a lifetime. My left heel was blistered from the rubbing of my heavy marching boot. Pete noticed that I was limping and offered to carry my rifle, but by this time I had learned the ethics of the march in the British army and courteously refused his offer.

We had gotten half-way through the communication trench, Pete in my immediate rear. He had his hand on my shoulder, as men in a communication trench have to do to keep in touch with each other. We had just climbed over a bashed-in part of the trench when in our rear a man tripped over a loose signal wire, and let out an oath. As usual, Pete rushed to his help. To reach the fallen man he had to cross this bashed-in part. A bullet cracked in the air and I ducked. Then a man from the rear. My heart stood still.
I went back and Pete was lying on the ground. By the aid of my flashlight I saw that he had his hand pressed to his right breast. The fingers were covered with blood. I flashed the light on his face and in its glow a grayish-blue color was stealing over his countenance. Pete looked up at me and said: "Well, Yank, they've done me in.
I can feel myself going West." His voice was getting fainter and I had to kneel down to get his words. Then he gave me a message to write home to his mother and his sweetheart, and I, like a great big boob, cried like a baby.
I was losing my first friend of the trenches.

Word was passed to the rear for a stretcher. He died before it arrived.
Two of us put the body on the stretcher and carried it to the nearest first-aid post, where the doctor took an official record of Pete's name, number, rank and regiment from his identity disk, this to be used in the casuality lists and notification to his family.

We left Pete there, but it broke our hearts to do so. The doctor informed us that we could bury him the next morning. That afternoon five of the boys of our section, myself included, went to the little ruined village in the rear and from the deserted gardens of the French chateaux gathered grass and flowers. From these we made a wreath.

While the boys were making this wreath, I sat under a shot-scarred apple tree and carved out the following verses on a little wooden shield which we nailed on Pete's cross.

True to his God; true to Britain, Doing his duty to the last,
Just one more name to be written On the Roll of Honor of heroes passed—

Passed to their God, enshrined in glory, Entering life of eternal rest,
One more chapter in England's story Of her sons doing their best.

Rest, you soldier, mate go true,
Never forgotten by us below;
Know that we are thinking of you, Ere to our rest we are bidden to go.

Next morning the whole section went over to say good-by to Pete, and laid him away to rest.

After each one had a look at the face of the dead, a corporal of the R. A.
M. C. sewed up the remains in a blanket. Then placing two heavy ropes across the stretcher (to be used in lowering the body into the grave), we lifted Pete onto the stretcher, and reverently covered him with a large union jack, the flag he had died for.

The chaplain led the way, then came the officers of the section, followed by two of the men carrying a wreath. Immediately after came poor Pete on the flag-draped stretcher, carried by four soldiers. I was one of the four. Behind the stretcher, in column of fours, came the remainder of the section.

To get to the cemetery, we had to pass through the little shell-destroyed village, where troops were hurrying to and fro.

As the funeral procession passed these troops came to the "attention" and smartly saluted the dead.

FOOD WILL WIN THE WAR

Poor Pete was receiving the only salutary a private is entitled to "somewhere in France."

Now and again a shell from the German lines would go whistling over the village to burst in our artillery lines in the rear.

When we reached the cemetery we halted in front of an open grave, and laid the stretcher beside it. Forming a hollow square around the opening of the grave, the chaplain read the burial service.

German machine-gun bullets were "cracking" in the air above us, but Pete didn't mind, and neither did we.
When the body was lowered into the grave the flag having been removed, we clicked our heels together and came to the salute.

I left before the grave was filled in.
I could not bear to see the dirt thrown on the blanket-covered face of my comrade. On the western front there are no coffins, and you are lucky to get a blanket to protect you from the wet and the worms. Several of the section stayed and decorated the grave with white stones.

That night, in the light of a lonely candle in the machine gunner's dugout of the front-line trench I wrote two letters. One to Pete's mother, the other to his sweetheart. While doing this I cursed the Prussian war god with all my heart, and I think that St.
Peter noted same.

The machine gunners in the dugout were laughing and joking. To them Pete was unknown. Pretty soon, my blues disappeared. One soon forgets on the western front.

AVIATOR CHECKED GENERAL ADVANCE

Rained Missiles on Enemy Infantry at Cambrai.

USES RELAY OF MACHINES

As Soon as One Was Crippled British Airman Would Nurse It Home and Bring Out Another—Swoops Down on Germans Many Times, Crumpling Up Every Attempted Attack With His Machine Gun Fire.

A stirring story of how one daring British aviator, like a guardian angel, held up for a whole day repeated enemy attacks upon a weak and crumbling British line at Cambrai in the height of the desperate struggle there by using four airplanes, one after another, as they were torn and crippled by enemy fire, has just come to light. It shows that some of the most daring and dangerous airplane work of the last year has been in the new field of attacking enemy infantry from the air.

The Germans were trying to recover a portion of the lost Hindenburg line, pushing with a great weight of men and guns at a point where it was very difficult for the British to bring up reserves. The British battalion opposing the attack had gone to earth in little isolated spots among the shell holes, grimly determined to hang on to the end.

The German masses had already moved across No Man's Land into the battered earthworks that once formed the British firing line. Other masses were moving up in support, and already the nearest shell holes were heaving and boiling over with restless heads and shoulders of men about to renew the advance. The barrage of the British guns was heavy, but at close quarters only infantry can stop the progress of infantry, and the fire from the British shell holes had grown weak and straggling. It looked as if the scanty British lines would be overwhelmed by sheer weight of numbers.

Air Alive With Bullets.

The fire from the Germans increased until the air was alive with their bullets. It was the concentrated fire which always precedes the rush to close quarters. The blue-gray figures were already beginning to appear above the shell holes, their loose flapping uniforms and hideous gas masks giving them the appearance of demons, when suddenly into the smoke and murk of battle there dived a British airplane.

Fifty feet from the ground it flattened out and skidded along the line, dropping its bombs among the bewildered Germans. Wheeling swiftly at the flank of the attack, it came skimming back like a swallow charging a swarm of flies, its machine guns enfolding the advancing foe and driving him back to his burrows.

A storm of German bullets swept through the planes, and a black flame-centered burst of enemy shrapnel smothered the airplane in vapor. The watching infantry saw splinters fall from its quivering frame and the silvery fabric of the underwings was torn in several places by shell splinters. But the daring pilot finished his course and vanished into the smoke clouds, leaving the panic-stricken enemy clinging to his shell holes too shaken and thinned to press the attack further.

Little by little, however, the German supports came up, advancing by short rushes over the open, re-enforcing their comrades in twos and threes. In spite of British fire. Scores and scores of their dead littered No Man's Land, but gradually the strength of the attacking line was made good, and the shell holes again began to heave and boil, as men rose from the lower cover and laid hold of the rims to assist them over the top.

Outweighed the British.

Then, suddenly, they were over and away, little spurts of humanity belched out of the crater field, coalescing into a seething blue-gray, rushing mass, hopelessly outweighing the handful of British defenders. But before the mass could gain full momentum, a familiar snorting hum sounded above the din of battle, and out of the low-lying haze swept the covering airplane, a new machine, but with the same pilot as before. His bombs dropping among the advancing Germans, dispersing those who escaped the flying fragments, and his machine guns swept them out of sight into the shell holes.

A half hour passed, and again the enemy attempted to attack, this time hesitatingly and with diminished spirit. Again the airplane appeared, and the first rattle of his guns sent the Germans into cover again. A German airplane dashed down to drive him away, but another British machine from the protecting patrol came down on the German's tail and sent him cartwheeling behind his own lines. There were other German machines in the offing, but the watchful British fighters made the enemy airmen shy of losing their altitude, and the dashing British pilot kept his guard over the threatened line without further interference.

Many times he swept down on the Germans that day, crumpling up every attempted attack with his fire, rendering portions of their positions untenable with his bombs often rocking and in the air gusts from a barrage just as often performing wilder

THE TRIAL OF MAJ. BOARD

IS DRAWING TO A CLOSE AT LOUISVILLE—DR. BOARD ON THE STAND.

The prosecution rested Tuesday night in the court martial trial of Maj. Milton Board at Louisville, after 27 witnesses had been called for the prosecution. The defense began with Capt. Sanger Brown who was questioned concerning the records filed at Washington in the case of Otha Murray. Capt. Brown testified that all of the forms forwarded to the Surgeon General's office at Washington by Maj. Board were satisfactory and had been accepted.

The judge advocate asked questions concerning the signature on the forms filed by Maj. Board. Efforts were made to prove that Maj. Board did not sign all of these records and was negligent in permitting some irresponsible person to attend to that phase of his work. The defense admitted that Maj. Board did not sign a certain record.

Maj. Board himself took the stand yesterday morning.

REPETITION OF PASSION PLAY THEATRE DOUBTFUL.

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 12.—Doubt that will even be another "Passion Play" at Oberammergau, was expressed in an address here by Miss Marie Mayer, who took the part of Miss Magdalene at the last presentation of the noted play. Many of those who took part in the play have either fallen on the battlefields of Europe, or are now soldiers, according to Miss Mayer. Anton Lang, who took the part of Christ in 1910, is now a member of the Red Cross in the field, she said.
